

Angela PIETRANTONI

EXPERIENCE

Angela Pietrantoni was born in Italy where she has gained a well-established experience for decades on the protection of Soft Targets and infrastructures of vital interest.

She graduated in Modern Letters with curriculum in history and business of performing arts, in International Cultural Management, and in Criminology and Technology for Security at the Catholic University of Milan. She was a member of two Technical Committees at ISO, and the Italian equivalent UNI, for Risk Management and Crisis Management, as well as being certified as Security Manager UNI 10459, Associate Member of the Business Continuity Institute (AMBCI), Head of Prevention and Protection Service (RSPP) as well as Port Facility Security Officer (PFSO), as well as member of the board of directors of ASIS International as well as Italy's representative for Woman in Security.

From 1988 to 2008 she gained experience in Entertainment and Broadcasting. Realizing that it is possible to protect well only what is known well, she decided to explore all the operational disciplines for security, from the artistic to the direction and the organizational one.

From 2008 to 2010 she has been working in the culture, theatre and entertainment sectors in the field of Fire prevention, Safety and emergency.

From 2011 on, she transfers this rare know-how from Soft Targets to critical infrastructures, in Business Continuity and Crisis Management subjects also for the Oil & Gas sector.

From 2012 onwards she has been an Executive manager of the Prevention and Protection Service for many different industrial sectors.

In 2013 she founded and managed as CEO "Scienze per la Sicurezza Consulting", the first convergent and integrated security firm for Corporates' strategic defense.

From 2014 on, she has been called by Chiesi, leader in the pharmaceutical market, for the security of industrial sites and privacy issues. She has been also called upon to implement the Business Continuity Management System techniques for important international groups, including companies belonging to the BNP Paribas Group. She carries out Risk Assessments and Security audits for Rai and has been taken part in anti-terrorist measures for the port of Marseilles following the terror attacks started in 2015 in France.

From 2015 onwards she developed the forward-thinking concept of Social and Economic Resilience that would lay the co-foundation of KELONY®, the first Risk-Rating Agency in the world, its subsequent theory of universal protection and the KELONY® school of thought. Since 2017 he has been General Manager and then CEO of KELONY®.

In 2020 she co-created the World Protection Forum™ and daily actualize the "Life First!" Philosophy of Action, for a better protected life whatever it takes.
