

Ariane Malzac

EXPERIENCE

Doctor in Business Law and Foreign Languages (English, Spanish), she is also an auditor of the IHEDN (Institut des Hautes Etudes de Défense Nationale / 51st national session) and of the CHECY (Centre des Hautes Etudes du Cyberspace).

After 4 years of entrepreneurial experience, she joined the Suez Lyonnaise des Eaux Group's offshore construction subsidiary in 1996 as Communications Manager. She then became Director of Corporate Communications at Sita (Waste management / Suez Group) and a member of the Executive Committee.

In 1999, she joined Matra Marconi Space to accompany the launch of the satellite subsidiary Astrium (EADS Group). She was subsequently Director of Communications at Astrium and member of the Executive Committee, then Director of External Relations at EADS Space (now Airbus Defence and Space).

In 2006, she joined Brink's France where she worked for 10 years as Director of Communications and Institutional Relations and Director of Airport Security Development.

In 2017, she founded PUBLISECURE, a firm specialized in crisis management, lobbying and business intelligence.

As Honorary President of the National Association of Auditors of IHEDN, she is also a member of the National Guard Advisory Council.

Operational Reserve Colonel of the French Air Force, she is in charge of mission for the General Commanding Air Defence and Air Operations (CDAOA)

She holds the Defence Medal and is classified "Secret Défense".

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

President - PUBLISECURE

Managing Partner - KELONY™ France